Patrick was a Certified Financial Planner (CFP) and Registered Principal for many years, working at many levels in the financial services industry from Registered Representative to Regional Vice President of a major financial services company. He will share his journey from prominence as a successful stockbroker in San Diego to his involvement in a financial fraud scheme, flight from the US to avoid prosecution, life as an international fugitive for four years and his subsequent self-surrender and incarceration for several years in both a foreign jail and U.S. prisons.

He has spoken on and conducted "Ethics in Leadership" presentations to rave reviews for such diverse groups as major universities including Harvard and Stanford, civic groups, businesses, international professional associations and law enforcement agencies. Patrick serves as an appointed Ethics Fellow at the University of Florida and Suffolk University.
